

ATAR | Direct Pathway To University

The ATAR pathway is for those students who are aiming for university. Students commencing Year 11 on the ATAR Pathway are those who are aiming to achieve both their WACE and an ATAR score. Achieving an ATAR score is the most direct path to university education. Students wishing to enter university directly need to study a minimum of four ATAR courses in Year 12 and gain a high enough ATAR to meet university entrance cut off scores. All ATAR courses have pre-requisites.

PATHWAY REQUIREMENTS

ATAR pathway students must study at least four ATAR courses.

LINKed | Alternative Pathway To Edith Cowan University

This pathway has been developed in partnership with Edith Cowan College as an alternative entry pathway into Edith Cowan University. It is for those students who aspire to go to university, but are unlikely to achieve an ATAR of 70 or more. They are students aspiring to university study but an ATAR Direct pathway is not suited to them or they may not have met the prerequisites to study ATAR courses in Year 11 and Year 12. LINKed students do not achieve an ATAR.

The LINKed alternative pathway to university will prepare students for a successful transition to university life and study.

PATHWAY REQUIREMENTS

LINKed pathway students study six General courses.
